DOCTOR MOORE VISITS EDUCATION OFFICE

Teachers assemble the 1954 Pictorial Review in the Education Office. At the left of the picture are BILL APPLEWHITE (now of Port Harrison), DOUGLAS LORD, MRS. KERANS and MRS. GRANTHAM. DR. FALCONER, DR. MATAS and DR. MOORE are in centre of picture. Next are MRS. SWINDEHURST, MRS. HESTON and MR. DEW, Principal of the Education Department.

WHEELCHAIR CLASSROOM IN UNIT NO. 3

Photographs by Alfred Blyth, A.R.P.S.

MR. DEW teaches JULIUS HAGER, PAT YELLOWBIRD and DOUGLAS JIMMY. Their wheelchairs are fitted with special tables for writing. ALEXIS NITIZA is now fitted with leg braces and is able to walk and sit at an ordinary table. The two smaller lads are itinerant patients in this ward. The wheelchair patients are polio and arthritic cases.

JUNIOR JEWISH GROUP GIVES PROJECTOR TO CAMSELL

Dave Bain Studio.

As part of its community service program, the AZA Mandel Bloomfield chapter of the B'nai B'rith Lodge, donated a movie projector to the Camsell Hospital. Pictured at the presentation are, left to right: DR. M. MATAS, medical superintendent of the hospital, HOWARD STARKMAN, president of the chapter, and AARON SHTABSKY, vice-president.

MISS TAYLOR, DIRECTOR OF NURSING, ACCEPTS GIFT FROM EX-WRENS

Oliver Studios

At the annual smorgasbord party of the ex-Wrens Association in the wardroom of the HMCS Nonsuch, JUNE LAW, president of the organization, presented a record player and record album to MISS TAYLOR for the use of the small patients.

ELKS LODGE UNITS TREAT INDIAN AND ESKIMO CHILDREN

Photograph by Oliver Studios.

Sixteen members of the Elks lodge, No. 11, and ten members of their ladies auxiliary distributed gifts to more than 190 children in the Camsell Hospital. DR. M. MATAS, superintendent of the hospital, is seen with G. L. MORITZ, Elks club representative, and two members of the Camsell small fry.

SCOTCH CLOTHES FOR HIGHLAND GAME

NEW OPEN-TOP HUMIDIFIER NEMBULIZER OXYGEN TENT

Staff from left: ED BELL, orderly; MAX CONATY, ward master; and MRS. RAPLEY, of the nursing staff.

MARY PANGERK WEARS A SMILE IN SPITE OF HER CAST

Could the broad smile be provoked by a surreptitious tickle? MISS M. COGILL, Assistant Director of Nursing, looks a trifle suspicious. MRS. McCOIG and MRS. WALL seem to wonder too.

CAMSELL "COUNTERPANE PLAYERS" PRESENT EASTER AND CHRISTMAS PLAYLETS

The small "Counterpane Players" of ward two, Camsell, are shown wearing their gay Easter costumes as they scan their lines for "A Journey to Easter Towne", written for them by their director, Mrs. L. S. Hester. In the first row from left, FRED A BULL of Hobbema, EMMA DOMINIQUE of Fort St. John, MELINDA BULLSHIELD of Blood Reserve, CLARA BEAVER of Lesser Slave Lake, MYRNA HILLIS of Kispiox, MARGARET CREE of Waterway. From left to right in the second row, BELLA MICHEL of Fort Nelson, DORIS OMEASOO of Hobbema, MURIELLE BLONDIN of Great Slave Lake, and VERA WILLIAMS of Aistlimik, Yukon.

COLD STORAGE VAULT

Photographs by Alfred Blyth, A.R.P.S.

Checking furs of Eskimo patients before they are placed in storage. In the back are seen MR. BRADLEY and C. ROGERS, and in front J. M. ROCKARTS, J. RUTHERFORD. The vault, an annex on the west side of the main hospital building, is so insulated that the temperature remains cool throughout the year. It has been in use about six months. Formerly all Eskimo furs were stored at the Hudson Bay Co. store.

WARD THREE GATHERED FOR MONTHLY EDUCATIONAL FILM

MRS. KERANS, teacher, is ready to give an hour's relaxation in the form of a picture show to the high routine patients of Ward 3 in 306.

NEW PAINT SHOP

In charge of decorating at the Camsell is CECIL CRAMER. Mr. Cramer is here pictured in the centre with PAT WEBB at his right and ART CAMPBELL at his left.

NEW MAINTENANCE WORKSHOPS

Surprised in the Carpenters' Workshop are BOB WADE, JOE ORNE, FRANK McGAUGHEY and BERT ROBERTS, Clerk of the Works. In the foreground are seen PAT PEPPIN and JACK MURDOCK.

Photographs by Alfred Blyth, A.R.P.S.

PYSIOTHERAPY DEPARTMENT

1. Wedding photograph of MR. and MRS. JOE VILLENEUVE. Joe is a member of the Camsell Orderly Staff. Mrs. Villeneuve was, before her marriage, MADELINE RED CROW, a patient in Camsell.

2. DR. E. MARY GEDDES SMITH, M.B. Ch.B., Aberdeen, Scotland, recently joined the Camsell medical staff.

3. MISS MADGE McCULLOCH, physiotherapist at the hospital, in the new pool with PAT YELLOWBIRD arthritic patient; and JULIUS HAGAR and ALEXIS NETSIZA, polio patients.

4. MISS McCULLOCH doing physiotherapy exercises with PAT and JULIUS.

5. Indian Head, worked in cross stitch, by MR. CHARLIE ROGERS, storeman at Camsell Hospital.

C.G.I.T. GROUP PRESENTS DICTIONARY TO GRADE XI PATIENT

Here, ELAINE PEACOCK and MRS. JACOBS, leader of the C.G.I.T. of the Highlands United Church, are seen presenting VERONA SEENUM, patient in the Camsell, with a Webster's Collegiate Dictionary. Verona was a Canadian Girl in Training when a student at the Edmonton Residential School. At the right of the bedside are REV. DR. J. F. WOODSWORTH and MRS. POLLARD, Superintendent of C.G.I.T.

SMALL PATIENTS AT CAMSELL HOSPITAL RECEIVE TOYS

National Defence Photo.

Two doll houses complete with miniature furniture, a doll, and a crib, brought smiles to the tiny faces of young Indian and Eskimo children. These were gifts from Brownie packs one and two of the Griesbach Barracks. At the back MRS. GIVAN, Brown Owl, holds ISOBELLE NAHLOONGEAK, little Eskimo girl from Gjoa Haven. At the right are PAT GLASSPOOL and MISS PAVEY, Tawny Owl. At the front are pictured Brownie JOAN CLEMENT, CARRIE OVERVOLD of Fort Norman, VERONICA REDCROW of Cardston, LORRAINE KYLE and KATIE KAGATAK of Cambridge Bay.

"POST-OP" PATIENTS DOING THEIR DAILY EXERCISES

"Tot Lot" children at Groat Ravine presented $50.00 to children of Camsell to be used for recreation purposes. It was presented by GARY CAMPBELL, a polio victim last year, to CAROL McLEAN, 7, an Indian girl from the Lesser Slave Lake agency, and ISABEL NAHLOONGEAK, 4, an Eskimo girl. The lot is under the direction of MISS MARKOVITCH (centre back). MISS F. E. TAYLOR, Director of Nursing at Camsell, is seen at right back.

COSTUME MADE BY CAMSELL PATIENTS

Photograph—Bruno Engler.

AL OEMING, Edmonton naturalist, writer and traveller, is photographed here on Goose Mountain, Alberta. His parka was made by CONNIE MELVANNA of Coppermine, who was at that time a Camsell patient. The mukluks were made by ALICE KOGEALAK, a Gjoa Haven Eskimo, who is at present a patient in the hospital.

CARTOON ARTIST SHOWS HOW IT'S DONE

Photograph by Oliver Studios.

Art director of Walt Disney's studios in California, ROY WILLIAMS, visited Camsell during a tour of Canada. He asked HENRY STONE, of Grouard, to help. Henry made a few marks on the pad. To Mr. Williams they looked like the tail of a bird, so he drew the rest.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS AT JASPER

DR. and MRS. CHARLES CAMSELL are pictured on holiday at Jasper Park Lodge. Dr. Camsell, distinguished Canadian geologist, also famed for his exploration and mapping of northern rivers and his early years spent in the Yukon, is honoured in Edmonton where the Charles Camsell Hospital bears his name. Now, retired, Dr. and Mrs. Camsell reside at Rockliffe Park, Ottawa.

FIGHTERS SHOW YOUNG PATIENTS HOW TO BATTLE
